

House Resolution No. 2968

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have dedicated their time and energy to support roles ensuring that today's students are provided learning environments which are challenging and rewarding in preparation for their future roles as societal leaders; and

Whereas, Debbie Jackson has attained considerable distinction as a Payroll Accountant at Crowder College in Neosho; and

Whereas, Debbie Jackson will enhance her already impressive record of accomplishments when she receives the Crowder College 2004 Classified Staff Employee of the Year Award from the Neosho Area Chamber of Commerce at an awards luncheon on Friday, May 14, 2004, at Crowder College; and

Whereas, nominated as Classified Staff Employee of the Year by her colleagues, Debbie Jackson approaches each aspect of her work as a total professional who is always calm and who gives each situation the time and attention it needs to complete the process; and

Whereas, thanks in large measure to the contributions of Debbie Jackson, Crowder College can ensure accurate payroll, records, and benefits for all of its employees; and

Whereas, Debbie Jackson has developed and maintained an exceptional reputation as a very dedicated and conscientious worker who has a sense of humor and compassion for others; and

Whereas, Debbie Jackson always handles employee requests with courtesy and a true desire to help, traits which have gone a long way to build better employee relations for Crowder College:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Debbie Jackson as the Crowder College 2004 Classified Staff Employee of the Year by the Neosho Area Chamber of Commerce and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Debbie Jackson of Crowder College in Neosho, Missouri.
